

I have currently joined the Sorenson team as a contract interpreter. I am proud to be part of a company that prides itself on providing quality interpreting. I am impressed by the company's professional environment and commitment to the best possible video relay communication they can provide.